Ready to Serve You

When C. A. LOCKHART is in charge of a Mill End Sale, people come miles to take part in the buying. No better, greater, healthier values are known in the country. This is a sale most phenomenal. It is enormous in scope and highest character. Tapp's well known reliability and fair dealing will characterize this sale just as you find it here every day in the year. "SATISFACTION IN EVERY PARTICULAR."

For months and months we have been hard at work, visiting mills and quietly buying in all the mill ends and special lots they could spare. Looking over the piles of new goods we wonder how such beautiful things could be obtained for so little money. With all these wonderful values, with Mr. Lockhart here, with such perfect preparation, this will be the greatest sale ever held here. It will eclipse all previous efforts. No such values have ever been offered you here and none better anywhere in the South. No cheap, shoddy stuff, everything new, fresh and stylish, just as you find our stock at all other times.

OUR STORE WILL BE CLOSED TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY TO ARRANGE AND MARK NEW GOODS

And when the doors open early Thursday morning you want to be among the first to push in. You have never before had the opportunity of seeing here anything so expensive, so complete, so really wonderful in the way of a special sale. Values that you wonder at. But they are real facts, ready for your selection.

WINNSBORO, S. C.

Wednesday, June 14, 1905.

Nitrogen is the most valuable of all fertilizing properties. There is no cheaper way to secure it than by extracting it from the air. This the pea will surely do. So the best way to secure this fertilizer is by sowing an abundance of peas. Don't fail to sow peas.

In this issue we print the last installment of Mr. Ford's history of Rocky Mount and vicinity. Much valuable history has been brought out in these papers and Mr. Ford has the thanks of the whole county for his effort to preserve the history of one of its most favored sections. We have had frequent assurances that these papers have been enjoyed and it is to be hoped that the good example set by Mr. Ford will be followed by others. It is always a pleasure for us to publish any information in regard to the history of this county. In this connection we beg to say that we shall begin next week the republication of Mr. McCreight's history of Mt. Zion Institute, which was published in these columns in 1868.

We have frequently referred to the fact that there is a constant demand in Winnsboro for houses. Every year for several years past there has been a steady demand during the fall months for houses. It has not infrequently happened that parties prospecting for business here have had to go elsewhere because they could not get a suitable house. It is also true that in a number of instances two families have had to take a house together, because they could not make a more satisfactory arrangement. This condition of things ought not to exist, this need for houses should be supplied; and in view of the fact that the price of rent has gradually advanced for the past year or two, it is now a good business proposition to invest in houses for rent.

The mother of invention is quite often just a wicked and frivolous desire to fib and fool people.

White Oak Affairs.

The White Oak school closed last Friday. Miss Jennette Patrick, the popular and accomplished teacher, with her pupils and their invited guests assembled in the Galloway grove to have a picnic and to spend a day of pleasure. Many plays and games were indulged in by old and young. At one o'clock dinner was announced, and a fine dinner it was. Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served in abundance. At a late hour all returned to their homes, having enjoyed a very pleasant day.

Nearly all our students and teachers have returned home from their colleges and schools. Students R. S. K. H., Bruce and Lexie Patrick from Erskine; Horace Traylor from Oak Hill Business College, N. C.; and Misses Irene and Helen Patrick, from Due West; and Gladys Patrick, from the Chester High School; the teachers—Misses Kittie Patrick, from Wrens, Ga.; Ida Patrick, from Laurens; and Florence Patrick, from Lancaster. Messrs. Sam Patrick of the Atlanta Business college and W. F. Patrick of Converse College will not get home for several weeks yet.

Your reporter spent last Wednesday at the hospitable home of Capt. T. W. Traylor. On his and Mr. J. E. Nichols' farms I saw the finest cotton that I have seen in my rounds. It is extra large, vigorous and a good color. The many friends here of the Hon. W. J. Johnson of Ridgeway were grieved to hear of his sad bereavement. The sorrowing ones have the sympathy of all here who knew them.

Miss Mary Bankhead is visiting in Chester this week. The relatives and many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Bankhead of Stover are sorry to hear of the sad affliction in their family. We trust and pray that the afflicted ones may be spared and speedily restored to good health. June 10, 1905. N.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by McMaster Co., Obeard Drug Co. and John H. McMaster & Co., druggists; price 50c."
